ADVERBS

Adverbs are words that describe verbs.

They answer the questions how, how often, when, and where.

Shelley walked up to the dog bravely. (How did she walk?)

She carefully pet the dog. (How did she pet the dog?)

The dog stood quietly. (How did the dog stand?)

Directions: Underline the adverb in each sentence.

1. Maria and Hunter read quietly.
2. Ava walked quickly down the hallway.
3. Andy completed his work easily.
4. Chase and Jaylon worked happily with the teacher.
5. Eliza presented her book report bravely to the class.
6. Ryan creatively created a painting in art class.
7. Ethan and Sophia carefully completed their homework.
8. Julia read her book silently on the carpet.
9. Thomas brings his lunch to school daily.
10. Emma shared excitedly about her weekend.
